LIFE'S COMPENSATIONS (Tired and Retired)

When I was young my slippers were red,
I could kick my heels over my head.

When I was older my slippers were blue,
Still I could dance the whole night through--

Now I am old my slippers are black,
I walk to the store and puff my way back -

Since I have retired from life's competition
I find my mornings an exact repetition.
I get up each morning, dust off my wits,
Pick up the paper and read the obits.
If my name is not mentioned, I know I am not dead....
So, I eat a good breakfast and go back to bed!
